

Suisse Adventure Roundup

Sleeping out next to a Glacier, now that is an Adventure

Well hello there! It's Day 4 so we've seen three very full (and full-on) days of activities to reflect on.

With our first overnight activity completed, several proper hikes undertaken and conquered and more adventurous activities besides, there was lots of skills on show. Plus many of them found their limits and pushed beyond them. Real determination, just what we expect from our Scouts.

Pictures and stories:

Here are some pictures of the adventures the scouts have been having! Please remember to send in your stories!

12 adventurers arrived back on site yesterday after an incredible glacier expedition.

As a group, they hiked from Oeschinensee lake up to Bluemlisalp Hut which sits at 2,840m above sea level. The views from the hut of the glacier were spectacular. After dinner and a comfy nights stay they were ready to continue on their second day.

Skills for glacier travel were learnt and then put into practice as they were guided across Bluemlisalp Glacier by a Swiss mountain guide. The group then hiked back down the mountain to Kandersteg.

About Suisse Adventure

Run by Hampshire Scouts, the UK's largest Scout County with over 18,000 Scouts aged 4-25 years and 6,000 volunteers, Suisse Adventure takes over 100 young people to Kandersteg International Scout Centre in Switzerland.

Some of the adventurers took part in an introduction course to abseiling.

The group hiked up into the mountains, before having the chance to try out the kit and experience the exciting feeling of descending down a rock face. Controlling your own descent is quite something and an experience new to many of them.

Two groups took on the mighty nearby Bunderspitz as part of two activities, some on a single day hike and the other on an overnight hike.

Both groups summited around midday after a long, hard slog up to the top. The views when they reached the top however were absolutely stunning and after a bite to eat, it made the journey onward much more bearable.

While one group went back to Kandersteg to recoup, the other is camping out in one of the huts (see their smiling faces on the front page) as we speak. We'll hear more when they return tomorrow I'm sure.

Media Updates

Google Drive!

Another way to tell us your stories!
As the first 2 days of activities have been and gone, many of you will have taken many photos and videos. As a media and comms team, we would love to see all your photos and videos. Please scan this QR code, this will take you to Google Drive where you can upload all the photos that you have taken. This is so that we can use them to post on social media and use in future additions of Suisse roundup!

Matterhorn sub-camp hosts Finnish guests!

In true Scout style, after meeting 2 Finnish backpackers who are undertaking a 3 month inter-railing trip around Europe, Matterhorn decided to invite the backpackers to join them on their sub-camp for dinner. Over dinner, they learnt about life in Finland and what their plans were for the rest of the trip.

In return, the Finnish backpackers sent a postcard to the sub-camp to say thank you for their hospitality and wished them well for the rest of their Swiss Adventure.
